NOTICE OF COLLECTIVE ACTION LAWSUIT

TO: [name]

Re: Lawsuit Regarding Claims for Alleged Unreimbursed Expenses/Unpaid Wages

- A delivery driver (Named Plaintiff) has sued EPSI, Inc. d/b/a “Domino’s” (Defendant) claiming it failed to fully reimburse delivery drivers for automobile expenses, which has reduced the wages paid by Defendant to drivers below the federal minimum wage.
- The Court has authorized mailing of this notice to current and former delivery drivers who worked for Defendant between [three years from date of order] and the present.
- You have been identified as a person potentially eligible to join this lawsuit.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS LAWSUIT
ASK TO BE INCLUDED	If you choose to be included in this case, you have the possibility of getting money or benefits from a trial or a settlement of the federal wage and hour claim, and you give up any rights to separately sue Defendant about the same claim in this lawsuit. If you wish to be included, you must complete the Consent to Join form at the end of this Notice.
DO NOTHING	If you choose not to join this lawsuit, you will not be affected by any judgment or settlement rendered in this lawsuit, whether favorable or unfavorable to the opt-in plaintiffs.

1. Why did I get this notice?

Records show that you currently or previously worked for Defendant as a delivery driver. The Court has authorized mailing of this notice regarding a collective action lawsuit that may affect you. You have legal rights and options that you may exercise in this case. The lawsuit is titled Gentry v. EPSI, Inc., Civil Action No. Case No. 5:18-cv-00020 (RWS), and is filed in federal court in the Eastern District of Texas, Texarkana Division.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

In this lawsuit, the Named Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to pay him and other, similarly situated delivery drivers the minimum wage by not fully reimbursing them for automobile expenses. He claims that, after deducting vehicle expenses (and excluding tips), he and other delivery drivers were paid less than the federal minimum wage.

3. What is a collective action and who is involved?

In a collective action lawsuit, one or more people sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. The Named Plaintiff who sued – and all those who return the attached Consent to Join form – are called the Plaintiffs. EPSI, Inc. is called the Defendant. One Court resolves the issues for everyone who joins the case.

4. Why is this lawsuit a collective action?

The Named Plaintiff who filed this lawsuit alleges there is a group of “similarly situated” current and former delivery drivers employed by Defendant.

5. What is Defendant’s position?

Defendant denies any wrongdoing or liability and vigorously contest all claims that have been asserted. Defendant asserts that delivery drivers were always paid an hourly wage at or above the federal minimum wage, as well as reasonable and lawful vehicle reimbursements and tips.

6. Has the Court decided who is right?

The Court has not decided whether Defendant or the Named Plaintiff is correct. By authorizing this notice, the Court is not suggesting that the Named Plaintiff will win or lose the case.

7. What is the Named Plaintiff asking for?

The Named Plaintiff is seeking to recover any unpaid minimum wages, or, in other words, the difference between what he was paid and the minimum wage. The Named Plaintiff also seeks “liquidated damages” in an amount equal to the unpaid wages, as well as recovery of costs and attorneys’ fees.

8. Can I join this lawsuit?

You have been identified as potentially eligible to join this lawsuit. Current and former delivery drivers who worked for Defendant from [three years from date of order] to the present are eligible to join.

9. What happens if I join the lawsuit?

If you choose to join this lawsuit, and are ultimately determined by the Court to be an opt-in plaintiff, you will be bound by any ruling, settlement or judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable, on the claims asserted. You will also be bound by, and will share in, to the extent appropriate, any settlement of the claims that may be reached on behalf of the Class. By joining this lawsuit, you designate the Named Plaintiff as your representative, and to the fullest extent possible, to make decisions on your behalf concerning the case, the method and manner of conducting the case, the entering of an agreement with Plaintiff's counsel regarding payment of attorneys' fees and court costs, the approval of settlements, and all other matters pertaining to this lawsuit. While this suit is pending, you may be required to submit documents and written answers to questions and to testify under oath at a deposition, or testify under oath at a hearing. The law prohibits Defendant from retaliating against you for participating in this Lawsuit.

10. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you choose not to join this lawsuit, you will not be directly affected by any ruling, judgment or settlement rendered on the federal claim asserted in this case, whether favorable or unfavorable. You should be aware that Fair Labor Standards Act claims are limited to a two- or three-year statute of limitations, and delay in joining this case, or proceeding separately, may result in some or all of your claims expiring as a matter of law.

11. How do I ask to be included in the case?

Enclosed is a form called "Consent to Join." If you choose to join this lawsuit, it is extremely important that you read, sign and promptly return the Consent to Join form. An addressed and postage paid return envelope is enclosed for your convenience. Should the enclosed envelope be lost or misplaced, return the Consent to Join Form to:

EPSI, Inc. Pizza Litigation
Paul LLP
601 Walnut, Suite 300
Kansas City, MO 64106

The signed Consent to Join form must be postmarked by [75 days from mailing]. If your signed Consent to Join form is not postmarked by 75 days from mailing, you may be prohibited from participating in this case.

12. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

If you choose to join this lawsuit you will be represented by Rick Paul and Sean Cooper of Paul LLP, Mark Potashnick of Weinhaus & Potashnick, and Jay Forester of Forester Haynie PLLC.

13. Should I get my own lawyer?

If you choose to opt-in to the lawsuit by promptly returning a signed Consent to Join form, you do not need to hire your own lawyer because Plaintiff's counsel will be working on your behalf. But if you want your own lawyer, you may have to pay that lawyer and will have to file your own separate lawsuit.

14. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Named Plaintiff has entered into a contingency fee agreement with Plaintiff's counsel, which means that if the Named Plaintiff does not win, there will be no attorneys' fees chargeable to him or anyone who joins the lawsuit. Under the fee agreement, in the event there is a recovery, Plaintiff's counsel will receive a percentage of any settlement obtained or money judgment entered in favor of all opt-in plaintiffs. Alternatively, the Court may be asked to determine the amount of fees. The fees may be part of a settlement obtained or money judgment entered in favor of Plaintiffs, or may be ordered by the Court to be separately paid by Defendant, or may be a combination of the two. A copy of the contingency fee agreement executed by the Named Plaintiff may be obtained upon request from Plaintiff's counsel identified below.
